

Excelaron plans to operate their industrial oil production facility, with an expected project life of twenty years, using a temporary office and portable toilet for their employees. I feel this adds unnecessary service vehicle traffic to Huasna Road and that Excelaron should construct a permanent toilet facility and septic system. The county certainly wouldn't let me build a house with a portable toilet and I can't even run a business out of my home unless that toilet is ADA compliant.